Article 1: Rights and Obligations of KENAS

- 1.1. KENAS will carry out assessments, surveillance, and re-assessment of a CAB in order to determine the competence of a CAB against the relevant national, regional and international standard(s) and applicable criteria and guidelines prior to making an accreditation decision.
- 1.2. KENAS undertakes to consistently apply the criteria for Accreditation and utilize competent staff or contracted personnel to provide its services. The CAB will be advised of the assessment team in advance, and any substantiated objections to individual members of the assessment team will, whenever possible, be accommodated. Such objections must be notified in writing within ten (10) working days of such notification, but KENAS will retain the ultimate discretion as to the choice of an appropriate assessment team to carry out any assessment.

- 1.3. Once KENAS is satisfied that the CAB meets the requirements for Accreditation, KENAS will issue an Accreditation Certificate to the CAB. The scope of the CAB's Accreditation will be detailed in the schedule accompanying the Accreditation Certificate.

- 1.6. Accreditation by KENAS does not in any way change the contractual responsibilities between the CAB and its clients. Whilst Accreditation is an indication of the competence of the CAB; for the avoidance of doubt, it cannot be taken to constitute an undertaking by KENAS that the CAB will maintain a particular level of competence and performance.
- 1.7. Once accredited, the first surveillance assessment shall be carried out, on or before the sixth (6th) month for a newly accredited CAB. If the first surveillance assessment outcome is satisfactory, the surveillance assessments will be carried out once a year unless otherwise determined. KENAS will notify the CAB on how continuing conformity with Accreditation requirements will be monitored and ascertained for the CAB to maintain its Accreditation status. In addition to the planned surveillance assessments, KENAS reserves the right to carry out additional or unscheduled assessments, as may reasonably be deemed fit. A re-assessment will be carried out every fourth (4th) year but at least six (6) months before expiry of the Accreditation.
